THE SULTAN OF ELEVEN MONTHS

RAMADAN

What is Ramadan?

Ramadan is the 9th month of the Islamic calendar. It is when the Holy Qur'an was first revealed to Prophet Muhammad. (peace and blessings be upon him).

Fasting in Ramadan is one of the Five Pillars of Islam. We do not eat or drink from dawn until sunset during Ramadan. We fast to get closer to Allah, be self-disciplined, control ourselves and show our gratitude for Allah's blessings.

Also, Tarawih is a voluntary night prayer performed in Ramadan. It is a highly recommended Sunnah for us.

We give money as alms which is required to be given in the month of Ramadan.

At the end of the Ramadan there is a big celebration called Eid Al-Fitr which means 'the feast of breaking the fast'.

In Eid Al-Fitr we celebrate completing our fast and we thank Allah for the strength He has given us throughout Ramadan.

How can we teach children our worths of religion?

Children learn the new things easily. They have an excellent mind and learning capacity .They are always open to learn and practice. So adults should be a good model for them. Parents and teachers are have a big role in their life.

While teaching our religion to our children , our first duty is endear it. We should not set strict rules and should not say you have to do it.

Islam is a religion of tolerance. If we fulfill our worship with love and respect, in time we will see it in our children's behaviour.

How can we be model?

Praying five times a day, fasting in Ramadan, reading Qur'an, giving alms, being kind to people etc...

Child see what you do and choose that way...

THE PROPHET HZ MUHAMMED'S (SAV) LIFE

Prophet Muhammad was born in 571 in Mekka. His father died just before he was born. His mother died just after he was born. After he had lost both his father and mother, he started to live with his grandfather Abdulmuttalip. After his grandfather had died, he started to live with his uncle Ebu Talip. When he was young, he started trading. He objected to the ones who worshipped an idol and the ones who lived in Mekka. Because he wanted to stay away from these people, he was going to the Hira Cave. His first wife was Prophet Hatice. They were married with 6 children whose names are Kasım, Abdullah, Zeynep, Rukiye, Ümmü Gülsüm, Fatıma. Kasım and Abdullah died when they were young ages. One day, when Prophet Muhammad went to the Hira Cave, Cebrail the angel of revelation came and gave him a command like "Read!". Therefore, Hz. Muhammad was declared a prophet at the age of 40.

Read!". Therefore, Hz. Muhammad was declared a prophet at the age of 40.

It was his wife who first believed in him. And then Hz. Ali, Zeyd Bin

Harise and Hz. Ebubekir also believed in him. As time went by, a lot of people listened to this message. Although Muslims were the majority, the elders of Mecca applied many persecution and torture to Muslims. To get rid of this situation, some Muslims emigrated to Ethiopia. Then some other Muslims also emigrated there. Finally, all Muslims emigrated to Medina with Hz. Muhammad's command.

In the Farewell Sermon Hz. Muhammad talked to all Muslims by saying goodbye to them. After that, Prophet Muhammad passed away in 632 in Medina. The tomb of the Prophet Muhammad is currently in Ravza-i Mutahhare in Medina.

Some Hadiths:

DRUMMER FEAR

Lara was getting ready to go to school, then she went out to wait for her bus and she saw people decorating streets and she wondered why people were decorating the streets. Then her bus came and she got on her bus. Lara arrived at school and then the teacher entered the classroom and Lara offered her teacher her fresh pastries that her mother had cooked in the morning but the teacher refused kindly and said to her “Thank you Lara but I’m fasting.” Lara asked to her teacher “Teacher, what does fasting mean?” and the teacher answered : “Fasting is a kind of prayee that we muslims do in the month of Ramadan. We do not eat or drink any thing untill a certain time. We do not eat between morning prayer and evening prayer. When the evening prayer is recited we eat and drink so that means fasting my dear.” Then teacher said“ Can I tell you something my sweethearts a man comes to your homes all nights during Ramadan while you are sleeping and playing a drum. Has anyone see him? When he comes, wake up and look at him in the window and then go to kitchen to eat delicious food that your mother has prepared. That meal is also named sahur.”...

It was evening. Lara went to bed for sleeping but she could not sleep because she was thinking about the drummer. Lara was very afraid of drummer that she dreamed in her mind. A few moments later she was able to sleep but sometimes later she heard a loud sound that comes from outside. She looked the outside from the window and saw a terrifying man was coming through the window by playing drum..She was very scared; she saw a nightmare. At that time the drummer came close her home and began to play the drum and shout “Ramazan geldi aylardan, Őenlik geldi evlereeee..” Lara suddenly woke up and she was very afraid of the drummer. She was afraid but she should have looked out of the window just once. Because a middle-aged sweet uncle was playing a drum and reading a kind of poems. Then Lara put herself to get her and looked out of the window and she saw the sweet drummer. After that Lara smiled, then the drummer saw Lara and waved. Later then Lara went to the kitchen and had sahur with her family. Lara does not afraid of the drummer anymore.
